Attention 2005 Spring/Summer Teams: Qualifying teams can register prior to January 23, the registration date for Category I. Those teams who played in the league the previous year can, however, register at any time during the registration period, as long as space is available. They do not have to meet specific category requirements. Note: Player signatures are encouraged on rosters, but not mandatory.

CATEGORY I: January 23 – New teams with projected rosters having 60% of their players either city residents or working in the Rockville business community tax limits. CATEGORY II: January 24 – New teams not meeting requirements listed in Category I and/or pre-registration. Note: Player signatures are encouraged on rosters but not mandatory.

IMPORTANT: If you or your players have a Rockville mailing address, residential or business, DO NOT ASSUME it is in the Rockville tax limits qualifying you for priority registration. Please confirm each address to make sure the 60 percent residential quota is met - see below.

Am I a Rockville resident?

A resident is any person who resides within the City's 13-square mile corporate limits. Do you pay a City of Rockville water bill? Do you pay City of Rockville taxes?

A non-resident is any person who does not reside within the corporate limits of the City of Rockville. Even though your mailing address may be "Rockville," this does not necessarily mean you are a City resident.
